

OSSERVA LE FRECCE E RIPASSA I TRATTEGGI.

The image shows a grid-based tracing exercise. It consists of several rows of dashed lines on a blue grid background. The first two rows are horizontal lines with green dots at the start and blue dots at the end. The next three rows are horizontal dashed lines with blue arrows pointing right at the start. The following three rows are horizontal dashed lines with blue arrows pointing left at the end. Below these is a solid pink horizontal line. The bottom section contains two vertical dashed lines with green dots at the top and blue dots at the bottom. This is followed by three vertical dashed lines with blue arrows pointing down at the top. Finally, there are five vertical dashed lines with blue arrows pointing up at the bottom.

The grid contains the following tracing exercises:

- Four dashed lines connecting green dots to blue dots:
 - Line 1: Green dot at (1, 1) to blue dot at (3, 3)
 - Line 2: Green dot at (2, 1) to blue dot at (4, 3)
 - Line 3: Green dot at (12, 1) to blue dot at (10, 3)
 - Line 4: Green dot at (13, 1) to blue dot at (11, 3)
- Two rows of dashed lines sloping down-right (from top-left to bottom-right), each with a blue arrow at the start indicating the direction.
- Two rows of dashed lines sloping up-right (from bottom-left to top-right), each with a blue arrow at the start indicating the direction.

The image contains a grid for tracing exercises. The top section is divided into two parts by a horizontal pink line. The upper part contains three rows of circles. The first row has three large circles; the first is solid with arrows indicating a counter-clockwise direction, and the other two are dashed. The second row has five medium circles; the first is solid with arrows indicating a counter-clockwise direction, and the other four are dashed. The third row has five medium circles, all dashed. The fourth and fifth rows each have eight small circles, all dashed. The lower part contains three rows of spirals. The first row has four spirals; the first is solid with an arrow indicating a clockwise direction, and the other three are dashed. The second row has three dashed spirals. The third row has five dashed spirals.

The image shows a grid-based tracing exercise. It consists of seven rows of dashed patterns on a blue grid. Each row begins with a solid blue line and a green dot, followed by a dashed version of the same pattern. The patterns are as follows:

- Row 1: A large blue loop followed by a dashed line that forms a series of circles.
- Row 2: A blue figure-eight shape followed by a dashed line that forms a series of vertical ovals.
- Row 3: A blue figure-eight shape followed by a dashed line that forms a series of horizontal ovals.
- Row 4: A solid pink horizontal line.
- Row 5: A blue figure-eight shape followed by a dashed line that forms a series of vertical ovals.
- Row 6: A blue figure-eight shape followed by a dashed line that forms a series of vertical ovals.
- Row 7: A blue figure-eight shape followed by a dashed line that forms a series of circles.
